WPA Enrollees Of 3 Counties Act To Strike

Movement In Protest Against Slash In Work Relief

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—A "spreading" strike of WPA workers in the San Francisco Bay area which is expected to affect nearly 30,000 persons, started today, officials of the Workers' Alliance said, with 60 men quitting a "gutter project" in Oakland.

Strike leaders said that the strike would likely spread from project to project as rapidly as the workers were completely organized. Both labor and white collar workers were reported to be involved.

The strikers were demanding no reduction in the number of persons on work relief rolls, which it previously was announced would be cut 39,000 in California within two months, and a ten per cent wage increase. WPA workers in San Francisco contended the wage issue was not directly involved as they previously were granted this but "failed to receive it on time."

The number of persons who will go on strike could not be estimated today but strike leaders indicated that they expected to move rapidly against the largest projects.

William R. Lawson, state WPA administrator, said he was powerless to act to meet the demands of the strikers, and could only follow instructions from Washington.

"In the event the strike becomes effective," he said, "we shall accept it and do absolutely nothing about attempting to carry on the projects."

Eagles To Initiate Class On April 12th

Members of Placerville Aerie No. 889, F.O.E., will initiate a class of about ten candidates for membership at their meeting on April 12. Plans for the evening are not entirely complete and further announcement is planned as the date nears.

13 DIE — Here is the wreck of the giant Transcontinental Airways skyliner that crashed nose first in a gully in Clifton, 10 miles from Pittsburgh, Pa., killing 10 passengers and three of the crew. While the wings and tail were fairly intact, the cabin was smashed to splinters. This was the seventh in a series of major air disasters since Dec. 15.

MOTHERS' AND DAUGHTERS' DINNER ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Noted Women's Club Leader Of Turlock Will Be Speaker; Annual Event Will Aid Scholarship Fund

A highlight in girls' activities for spring at the county high school will be reached Friday evening in the annual Mothers' and Daughters' banquet, to be served at 6:30 o'clock in the rooms of the homemaking department.

In addition to the usual delicious dinner, the meeting will include a varied entertainment program with Mrs. Albert Julien of Turlock, noted women's club leader, as the speaker of the evening.

Women of the county whose daughters may be unable to attend, or who have no daughters to accompany them, may "borrow" a daughter for the evening by contacting the high school office.

In addition to Mrs. Julien's talk, there will be a varied entertainment by the members of the Girls' League who hope, from the proceeds of the event, to add to the fund they are raising to present a scholarship at the end of the school year to the most deserving senior girl.

Program for the evening will be as follows: Selections by the Girls' League band, directed by Miss Wilma Manning; Welcome to all, by Miss Aileen Pierson, Girls' League president; "We Are Thankful," Miss Mabel Jean Barnhouse; Introduction of Daughters, by Mrs. Lillian Davey, Girls' League leader; group singing, led by Miss Manning; vocal selections by a girls' sextette; echoes from the Older Girls' conference, Eleanor Kollman, Druc Killian, Dorothy Cosen, Evelyn Berrian and Helen Francis; Introduction of Mrs. Julien by Miss Kathryn Hackwood; dance number, by Janis Ball and Marilyn Ruple; vocal selections, girls' trio and, selections by the Girls' League band.

COOL DANCERS BEGIN SEASON ON APRIL 17th

An announcement from Cool residents states that they have renovated the dance hall at that place and that definite plans have been laid for a grand opening dance on Saturday night, April 17th.

To stimulate attendance and to further publicize the opening dance an award of $25.00 is to be given for the best name for the remodeled and enlarged hall, turned in to the committee by Saturday, April 17th. This is according to R. W. Nance of Cool.

The announcement further states that Captain Carter and his 8-piece orchestra are to furnish the music for the affair and that the admission price is to be $1.00.

Placerville P. T. A. To Meet On Tuesday

The April meeting of the Placerville Parent-Teacher Association will be held Tuesday, April 6, at the grammar school. The association is meeting on Tuesday instead of on the regular "first Wednesday," so that members of the group may have opportunity to attend the Homecraft Institute, which opens Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Brandt's third grade will supply the entertainment feature for the meeting and business of the afternoon will include a report on the recent third district P.T.A. meeting at Sacramento by Mrs. Martin Luther.

Dr. Banks To Spend Monday In Community

Dr. Emmeline Banks, of the state health department, will pay her April visit to Placerville grammar school on Monday. Dr. Banks will be at the school throughout the day for a continuance of her consultations with mothers and babies.

Business men will be interested in the report we received from Clarence S. Collins, representative in this county for Studebaker automobiles and Master-bilt auto trailers.

Mr. Collins used a three column by nine inch advertisement in The Placerville Republican of Monday to direct the attention of the public to the Master-bilt trailer display to be held on Wednesday and Thursday on the site of the old Studebaker blacksmith shop.

The result was that more than 400 people visited the display on Wednesday.

Advertising pays.

If you're one of the constantly increasing throng of winter sports fans who spends Sundays in the snow country, you'll envy Assistant Forester A. N. Weber and Junior Forester Bert Parsons the trip which they are taking this week.

They're in the Lumberyard ranger district, and will return to Placerville on skis down the China Flat trail. Or don't you take your skiing that seriously?

Guess the weather man was "only foolin'" when he treated us to three or four days of sunshine. Or perhaps it was his idea of an April Fool joke.

CALVIN CLUB SINGS SUNDAY

Group Of Students To Spend Week-End In Placerville

The young people of the Federated church will be hosts Saturday and Sunday, April 3 and 4, to several members of the Calvin Club, a group of 200 Christian Endeavorers in a Berkeley church, who will be heard at the Sunday morning Sunday school hour in a sacred program.

All are University of California students.

The entertainment of the visiting group will open on Saturday evening with a six o'clock pot-luck supper at the church following which the U. C. delegation will present two original movies, written and acted by the student group. There are several talented musicians in the group who will contribute to the evening's program, consisting of a "Singspiration" in which all will join.

The sacred program Sunday morning will be at 9:45 o'clock and the public is invited. Two members of the group, William Dunlap and David Newsom are well known in Placerville. Both meetings are open to all young people in the community, reports Miss Marjorie Brimhall, press chairman.

COURT OUSTS GRAND JURORS

Deposed Members Call Meeting; Judges Confer

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Judge G. J. Steiger, after discharging the graft-investigating grand jury because it "lacked unity of purpose," today moved to cancel the remaining 130 names on the present grand jury panel and "start all over again."

Meantime, James J. Gartland, foreman of the discharged grand jury, announced the dismissed jurors has called a secret meeting of its members at the city hall. He refused to confirm or deny if its purpose was to fight Judge Steiger's ouster. He said Judge Steiger knew nothing of the proposed session.

Judge Steiger scheduled a special meeting of all Superior Court judges to determine the legality of selecting an entire new panel. If this cannot be done legally, another grand jury will have to be chosen from the remaining 130 names.

"Regardless of what procedure is taken," Judge Steiger said, "each prospective juror will be rigidly, thoroughly and comprehensively examined in open court regarding his private life affiliations."

"This was done, to a degree, to the jurors whom I was forced to oust," Judge Steiger said. "But we didn't know, then, that the Atherton vice report would be exploded on them for their consideration."

CHRIST'S LIFE FILM TOPIC ON SUNDAY NIGHT

The showing of Cecil B. DeMille's "The King of Kings" will take place at the Federated church April 4th, at 7:30 p. m.

This wonderful filmization of the life of Christ enlisted the energies of the DeMille organization for a year. It included the acting of hundreds of fine players and the construction of tremendous sets of Bible scenes such as has never before been attempted.

For the first time a picture producer has re-created the Temple at Jerusalem, the Palace of Herod and many other historical locales of the Gospel story. As an example of the physical elaborateness of the picture, it is worthy of mention that 10,000 objects or properties pertaining to the primitive Christian era were made for and used in the picture.

The public is invited.

Placerville Area On Radio Monday

Placerville and vicinity will be featured over the "Western Farm and Home Hour" Monday, April 5th. This program is broadcast daily at 11:30 a. m., the portion concerning Placerville coming on at 12:05. It originates in the office of KGO at San Francisco.

The material to be used in the radio talk was prepared by the staff of the Placerville Soil Conservation Service Project under the direction of Glen E. Paxton, project manager, and will be presented by Carl Gragg, assistant district manager.

While it may be an April Fool prank by the so-called sports experts at the expense of the 6,000 spectators holding tickets for the fights, the public prints are littered with predictions that when the leather stops flying Saturday night, it will be the boys from the southern states who pack home the greatest number of titles.

Forty-six battlers are on the entry list, with champions and near-champions from the Pacific coast and southern conferences predominating. University of Arizona, University of North Dakota and Tulane also have contestants in the field.

In only two divisions, the heavy-weight and the 155-pound classes, do the ring sages expect the Pacific coast, or any section, to break into the "solid south."

Strangely, there are many who believe it will be Eugene (Tiny) Cervelli, University of San Francisco's 257-pound man-mountain, who will keep the heavyweight crown at home. (Continued on page 4)

IRISH DRAMA EMPIRE FILM

Insurrection Of 1916 Contributes Story For Play

"The Plough and The Stars," in which Barbara Stanwyck stars, and Preston Foster and Una O'Connor are featured, is a story of the Irish "Insurrection" of 1916. It was directed by John Ford, who won the Motion Picture Academy award for his direction of "The Informer," a drama laid in exactly the same locale, but concerned with Ireland's "time of troubles" in 1922.

The picture is the Thursday and Friday feature at the Empire Theater.

The strong feeling of realism which Ford injected into both these pictures is attributed not only to his brilliance as a director, but to an intimate knowledge of Ireland and the Irish people. Or Irish descent, though born in America, Ford has many times visited Ireland. Possessed of what is known as a "photographic mind," Ford, in directing these pictures, was able to work hand in hand with his technical advisors and research authorities in re-creating for the cameras Dublin under the stress of reaction to sudden civil warfare. Taken from Sean O'Casey's play of the same name, "The Plough & The Stars" draws its title from the emblem on the Citizen Army's banner.

Scout Leaders Will Have Week's School

A Boy Scout leaders' training school will be conducted each evening during the week opening Monday, April 5, at the study of Rev. Harold Morehouse, adjoining the Federated Church.

The school will be under the auspices of the district Boy Scout Committee and will be conducted by E. W. Zueger, assisted by Frank Dayton and Jack Parsons.

Hazer Shower, area executive, and Carl Fossette, assistant and other Scout leaders from Sacramento will attend the school on different nights to assist in the course of study. All men interested in Boy Scout work will be welcomed and the hour is 7:30 o'clock each night.

PARADE OF SPORTS

(United Press Staff Writer)

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (U.P.)—Two days ago this wire was delivered to me in New York as I sat at my desk wondering just how long it had been since I had licked the dasher of an ice cream freezer:

"You are short stop better hurry it. (Signed Frank)." The wire was from Daytona Beach. The St. Louis Cardinals train in that city. And the manager of the Cardinals is named Frank, the same Frisch who refused to meet my demands when I was a rookie with the Cardinals forcing me to become a holdout.

The wire, it seemed to me, could mean but one thing and it chased the thoughts of ice cream dashers out of my head. Frisch had surrendered. He wanted me to hurry south and start playing shortstop for St. Louis. And to show that he felt no bitterness he had simply signed his first name to the wire.

My heart sang as I packed ready to take a plane within the hour which would rush me to the aid of those who needed me. I could once again feel screaming bunts coming off my bat. I could feel the ball slipping through my fingers; I could almost hear the roar of the crowd as I was taken out for a pinch hitter.

Those were my feelings in New York and they were still my feelings when I reached Daytona Beach this morning. With Frank's wire clutched in my hand I hurried to the ball park to find it deserted except for the grounds keeper who was leaning up against the club house door.

"Where's the team?" I asked. "In St. Pete, playing the Yanks. What are you doing back down here?" I showed him the wire.

"Well maybe so," he said. "But Mr. Frisch told me yesterday to clean out your locker and give your suit to the bat boy. He said you never would be back—not while he was managing the ball club, anyhow."

I laughed a laugh that was two-thirds sneer.

"Well, there's the wire," I said. "Undoubtedly Bredon or Rickey told Frisch that the good of the ball club should come before his own likes and dislikes and ordered him to wire for me."

"Well, maybe," he said and walked off to resume ground keeping.

I had decided to join the team in St. Petersburg and was walking toward the station when I heard someone hail me. It was Frank Belfore, cashier of the bank where I have an account.

"Did you get my wire," he asked. "I didn't expect you to bring the money down in person."

"Wire?" I asked him. "What wire did you send me?"

"Why, your account being very low I wired you and said you were short, better hurry it."

"The next time you wire me," I said, "put you are short-period not you are short-stop."

ROOSEVELT FOR PWA EXTENSION

Present Work Expires June 30 Unless Law Is Changed

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Roosevelt favors extension of the Public Works Administration for two more years but on a reduced scale, Rep. Alfred F. Beiter, D. N. Y., said today after a White House conference.

The President believes, Beiter said, the PWA should be limited to spending $150,000,000 for heavy construction projects and should use its money employing only relief labor.

The $150,000,000 would come from the $300,000,000 made available for federal loans and grants by Congress last year. The revolving fund came from PWA sale of municipal securities it accepted as loan collateral.

As the law stands now, PWA is due to close down June 30. Beiter's proposal would continue it until June 30, 1939.

Accompanying Beiter to the White House conference were:

Representatives Charles Kramer, California; John J. Dempsey, New Mexico; Wesley Disney, Oklahoma; Jennings Randolph, West Virginia; all Democrats.

HOSPITAL BILL LOSES SUPPORT

Private Institutions Oppose Plan For "Pay Patients"

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Legislation permitting county hospitals to receive paying patients was before the legislature today with "do not pass" recommendation.

The Senate Constitutional Amendments Committee announced the decision after four hours of bitter debate between farm and labor organizations supporting the measure, and private hospital delegates opposing it.

Senator Bradford S. Crittenden, author, asked favorable consideration to "allow counties to do legally what they now are forced to do illegally."

Opponents said the bill was unnecessary and would result in serious injury to private institutions.

Roy R. Nofz, head of the Workers' Alliance, said that the strike would affect all projects in San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda counties, with projects being shut down in quick succession until demands are met.

Another strike in Alameda County continued at the Hayward plant of the California Conserving Company, scene of rioting earlier in the week. Police escorts were provided nonunion workers again but no new disorder was reported.

Possibility of two other major strikes was seen with San Francisco hotel employees scheduled to take a strike vote today to enforce demands for increased wages and other concessions, and members of two Southern Pacific Railway Brotherhoods already taking a strike vote in the Pacific division. It was expected this vote would be completed in less than a week.

The announcement, calling attention to "Call of the Open" show and trailer demonstration was published exclusively in this newspaper Monday of this week, and the large attendance demonstrates the reader interest in vacation and outing ideas, even though spring has just "sprung."

COLLEGE RING TOURNAMENT OPENS

They believe it will be a case of once burned, twice shy for Tiny, if and when he meets Ross Sundberg, University of Idaho's 235-pounder, who won the Pacific Intercollegiate belt by knocking out Cervelli in the finals.

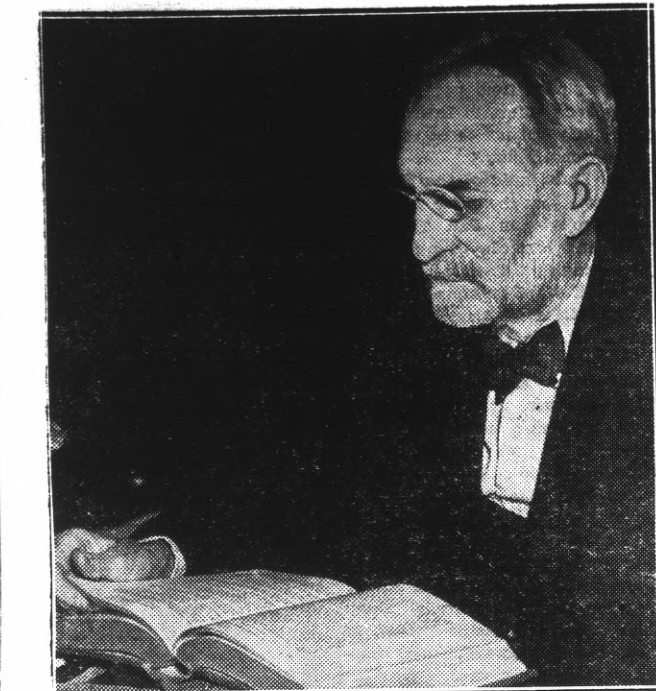

Knowing little of the capabilities of other entries, and knowing considerable of the prowess of Ed McKinnon, Washington State's coast titlist, the prognosticators are giving the lean Cougar fighter the inside track to trade in his coast crown from a National 155-pound belt.

Despite the known abilities of Roy Petragallo, W. S. C., and Jem Mace, U. S. F., in the 115-pound class, the consensus lies with Frank Jenkins, the boy from South Carolina who reputedly "has everything."

Tom Birmingham of Maryland, 1937 Southern Conference 125-pound champion, is picked as the winner of this competition, with Elwood (Dick) Derr, University of California's coast titlist, a long shot bet.

Jack Kneipp, one of Duke University's four potential champions, is given a shade the best of it in the lightweight bracket, with his teammate and defending NCAA champion, Danny Farrar, appearing good for a repeat unless he is unhorsed by Rolly Shumway, Idaho's rugged 145-pounder. Shumway's imposing record includes a victory over Freddie Apostoli, San Francisco professional.

In the middleweight class, Ray Matulewicz of Duke, last year's NCAA lightweight champion, member of the U. S. Olympic team and two-year Southern Circuit champion, has such an imposing record he must be made

SEVENTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY—Associate Justice George Sutherland of the United States Supreme Court, as he observed his 75th birthday, recently, at his office in the Supreme Court building, Washington. the choice, experts feel. A powerful place bet is Max Novich of North Carolina, two-year Southern middleweight champion, with Leon Gray of Arizona a substantial choice to show in the 165-pound competition.

Louis Schmidt, Virginia, a dynamite puncher; Stan Griffin, San Jose State, coast titlist, and Joe Sachen, Arizona's undefeated slugger, comprise a field bet in the lightweight bracket.

SUPREME COURT CHANGE LOSING

Montana Senator Says Judiciary Measure Lack Support

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opponents of President Roosevelt's judiciary program claimed today that the administration is losing ground in its own tabulation of congressional support of enlargement of the Supreme Court.

"There would not be 35 votes in the Senate for the pending judiciary bill if it were brought to a vote today," Senator Burton K. Wheeler, D., Montana, asserted in surveying this week's offensive against the measure.

"The administration might get a majority if they cut the proposed increase of justices from six to two."

Administration leaders countered that they were certain of enough votes to pass the bill.

Wooden Box Drive Boosted By Eagles

Placerville Aerie No. 889, F.O.E., at a recent meeting joined civic and fraternal groups which have previously given their pledge of support to the campaign being carried on throughout the Pacific lumbering area to promote the use of wooden boxes in the packing of goods for shipment.

Many members of the aerie are employed in the lumbering industry.

NEW STRIKE IN AUTO INDUSTRY

90,000 Out Of Work In Recurrence Of "Sit-Down"

DETROIT (AP)—More than 90,000 automotive workers were idle today as a new wave of sit-down strikes spread through the plants of General Motors Corporation and its affiliates.

With 73,400 employees out of work as a result of prolonged strikes in the plants of Chrysler Corporation, the Hudson and Reo Motor Car Companies, new labor troubles in four General Motors plants and the factory of the Yellow Truck & Coach Manufacturing Company, added 17,200 to the ranks of idle workers.

A strike affecting 76,000 employees of the Fisher Body Corporation plant at Pontiac last night was followed today by the shutdown of the Pontiac Motor assembly line of 1100 workers due to a shortage of bodies.

WHO PIONEERED THE GREAT BRIDGES?

While skeptics wagged their heads, far-seeing men launched one of the great engineering feats of the past decade and blazed a trail for the mammoth bridges of today.

They built a highway bridge across the Carquinez Straits and opened it in 1927.

It was a courageous project. Courageous men met the unknown hazards of a pioneer enterprise and courageous neighbors, sensing its value to the people of the State, backed it with their savings.

California was proud of the Carquinez Bridge . . . then! It broke a bottle neck which had existed since the days of the Padres and opened up a major channel of transportation for California. It has saved inestimable time and money to millions of automobile and truck owners.

California made a contract with the bridge builders . . . a 25 year franchise to justify their investment . . . ending in 1948. At that time it will become the State's property FREE OF ANY COST.

Today . . . politicians threaten to violate the sanctity of that contract and confiscate our investment in the bridge, which can be realized only by receiving the revenue from its operation until it automatically becomes the property of the State.

LET CALIFORNIA KEEP FAITH!
